

Title	Renumbering of all Family Law Forms
Summary	This proposal would renumber all family law forms including domestic violence, governmental support, uniform paternity, and required federal forms in order to increase the ability to locate needed forms.

Discussion	Family law forms are currently found in a wide variety of locations and with widely disparate numbers. Form numbers range from 1281–1299.77, from DV 100–DV 150, to federal forms starting with UIFSA and OMB. It is extremely difficult for any litigant or attorney unfamiliar with family law practice to determine what forms are required in a matter. Judicial Council forms have gradually been changed to reflect a code at the beginning of each form. For example, forms for guardianship and conservatorship start with GC, forms for name changes start with NC, traffic forms start with TR, and so on. This proposal would put all family law forms together and have each start with FL. This proposed numbering scheme arranges forms chronologically, in the order that they are likely to be used. It divides the types of forms used into general categories. The FL 100 series is designed for dissolutions, legal separations and annulments; FL 200 for uniform parentage actions; FL 300 for motions; FL 400 for enforcement; FL 500 for interstate actions; FL 600 for governmental child support matters; FL 700 for summary dissolutions; FL 800 for domestic violence; and FL 900 for miscellaneous forms. Within those categories, numbering is arranged in the order that a form would be used in a case. There will still be crossover in many of these categories. For example, the Income and Expense Declaration is placed in the 100 section, but it will be used for a variety of family law proceedings. The goal is to make it easier to find by maintaining it as an “FL” form. The proposal also contemplates renumbering current form MC-150, the Declaration Under Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA) as it appears to be used only in family law and guardianship/conservatorship actions. This form would be given

two numbers, (FL 105/GC 120) and would appear in the list of forms in both family law and guardianship/conservatorship.

We propose that this renumbering take effect as of July 1, 2002, in order to allow the courts and practitioners to utilize existing printed court forms and to provide for details of the change to be completed without undue haste.
